4/5/6/7/8-A-Side Football for Allcomers (Ladies & Gents)

Simon Rigby writes: Spurred on by my slow recovery from 2 tennis elbows I'm keen to organise some games of 5-a-side football provided there are enough willing to give it a go. It would be open to ladies & gents of all abilities (or even no ability), and provided we get at least, say, 8 players we can go ahead - even more would be great. It is exceedingly aerobic so a big boost to fitness and with a good mix of abilities it would be great fun. We can play on the all weather surface at New College, Drift Road. If anyone is interested (remember enthusiasm counts more than skill) please contact me either via my email simon@ukos.com or my mobile 07736949394 to register an interest. I can then negotiate the best time to suite the majority.

PLAY TENNIS AT QUEEN'S

Helen Gatehouse, President of the Rotary Club of Stamford St Martin's, has written to us about the Bollywood at Burghley Ball which the Branch is organizing for 6 June 2009 in aid of TeenZone Stamford and LifeStraws. As part of the fundraising there is an auction, and one of the auction prizes is:

Single or doubles match for 2 hours at Queens Tennis Club in West London, followed by lunch or dinner in the club house with Dr Raj Persaud, the well-known psychiatrist, at a mutually convenient date.

Proxy bidders will be available for those unable to be at the event and will take instructions as to the maximum bid authorised by the absent bidder. Further details from helengatehouse@hotmail.co.uk
